MSFGA - SHOW RULES

All goats entered in the show must be registered with the MSFGA and a copy of the MSFGA registration paper must accompany the entry form for each goat entered in the show. Each show will be a sanctioned qualifying Championship show. Each Champion win, where at least 5 goats were entered in the division, qualifies as a leg toward a Master Champion. Three Champion legs qualify for Master Champion status. At least one leg must be earned after the goat is 18 months old. All MSFGA Master Champions being exhibited in the show must enter in the Best in Show class, where they will compete with Grand Champion winners from the four divisions. Mini Silkies of any age may be entered in the show. All goats MUST NOT exceed the maximum allowed height for bucks and does as stated in the MSFGA breed standard. Have your goats checked in and their height measured and Health papers checked way BEFORE the show begins! Sept. 10, 2010 and Sept. 11, 2011 shows will be run under MSFGA rules and regulations. The Miniature Silky Fainting Goats attending the shows will be scored according to the MSFGA Standard and Score Sheet and guidelines. Tattoos must be easily legible. FUN CLASSES are "unsanctioned" and not eligible for any Championship Awards. Any goat shown in a FUN CLASS must also be shown in a sanctioned class.

Early Arrival and Check In Early Arrival can begin on Friday September the 9th, from 4:00pm till 8:00pm. Goats can be checked in on Sept. 10-11th, 2011 from 7:00am to 8:00am. Check-In will stop immediately at 8:00 am. If you are not at the Show Secretary's desk by 8:00 am you will not be allowed to check-in or show. Shows will begin at 9:00 am sharp. Goats brought into this facility MUST be entered in a class. Any sales must be off the Show Grounds, and follow Iowa Regulations on Transporting of Goats.

HEALTH REQUIRMENTS

All goats must have a Health Certificate and show no evidence of infectious disease, and will need to be examined by show management before unloading. Show management will check for signs of abscess, (visible or draining lumps) or any severe snotty noses or bad coughs or loose stool. All goats must show NO evidence of infectious disease. Any signs of these symptoms will keep goat from entering the Show, and will be sent home. Health Certificate issued within thirty days of the show. See link provided below to know what the State of Iowa requires. <http://www.iowaagriculture.gov/>

Herd Tattoos must be USDA Approved and easily legible. Scrapie Tags are acceptable. You MUST bring an extra copy of your goat's health certificate that will be retained by the show secretary.

Awards

Ribbons will be awarded up to 5th place in all regular and optional classes. Champion and Reserve Champion will be awarded Rosettes. Show Points will not be included on the FUN SHOWS, only 1st-5th place ribbons.

STALLS and BARN

The sheep barn has about 50 permanent pens. Each pen is large enough to hold 3-4 goats. It has openings on one end for unloading stock. The other end has a large door to move animals into the show ring. The show ring is covered with seating for 200 people. The Sheep barn is lighted. There is a concrete wash area outside the building. You will need to provide your own bedding of woodchips, hay will NOT be available for purchase at the show. You must clean your own stalls after the show on Sunday, (or if you leave on Saturday). Stalls will be available at $11.00 per stall.
